2,000 Russians Depart From Cuba

HAVANA (AP) — Some 2,000 Russians left Havana Friday aboard a medium-sized Soviet liner, informed sources said today. The vessel left early in the afternoon just as another Soviet liner steamed into Havana Bay.

Port authorities said they were not allowed to reveal the name of the departing vessel or its destination. It was not known whether the Russians were soldiers or civilian technicians.

The White House said Feb. 20 that the Kremlin had assured it that several thousand Russian military men would be withdrawn from Cuba by mid-March.

It said that some of the personnel being shipped out were involved in guarding the sort of offensive missiles and bombers that were withdrawn after last fall's Cuban crisis.

Others ticketed to go home were described as Soviet specialists who have been training Cuban armed forces.

Other departures have been reported previously.

On Dec. 25, a Soviet passenger liner sailed from Havana with hundreds of Russian men, women and children who had been stationed in Cuba.

The government claimed two victories over counterrevolutionary forces. It announced the extermination of a band of insur-

British Claim U.S. 'Stealing' Top Scientists

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government officials today branded as absurd allegations by Britain's minister of science that the United States is conducting a high-pressure recruiting campaign to lure British scientists.

The American school system is able to meet most of the United States' need for scientists and engineers, the officials said. Although some foreigners are drawn to this country, "greener pastures" and not high-pressure tactics are the reason, they said.

The British minister, Lord Hailsham, told the House of Lords this week that the American high school system is unable to turn out first-rate scientific talent. As a result, he said, the United States sends talent scouts to Britain to buy British brains for service in the United States, thus creating a "brain drain."

Officials of the National Science Foundation, the National Academy of Sciences, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and others flatly denied the charge.

Dr. Edward Wenk, assistant to Dr. Jerome N. Wiesner, President Kennedy's science adviser, said: "The facts indicate that the total number of people coming from the United Kingdom is very small. In 1961, the United States turned out 93,000 engineers and scientists and there were 3,900 immigrants, only 4 per cent of the total. Of the foreigners, 5 per cent came from the United Kingdom."

"These 575 who came from the United Kingdom may represent a sizable fraction of the English production but the facts suggest at the present time that one should not conclude that we depend in any major way on the brain drain of which Lord Hailsham spoke."

Tax Program Awaits Action

Committee Delays Debt Ceiling Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Raising the ceiling on the national debt has become a painful annual exercise for Congress.

This year, the task is especially difficult for Democratic leaders because at the same time they are trying to push through some version of President Kennedy's tax program.

Tax cuts mean bigger deficits, at least for a while. This is one reason the House Ways and Means Committee, after some preliminary hearings on a preliminary debt ceiling bill, put the whole distasteful question on the shelf for at least a month.

Democrats and Republicans on the committee joined in the postponement decision, but not for entirely the same motives.

Democrats are hoping the raise can be kept to a minimum, holding down resistance in Congress.

The senior Republican member, Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, left no doubt the GOP would be happy to use uncertainty over

It Was Cold!

19-Degree Average In February One Of The Lowest

Last month was the coldest February since 1948 and it marked the fourth time that below-normal February followed similar cold temperatures in December and January.

Which all adds up to an old-fashioned winter like Grandpa talks about, Columbiana County Weather Observer Edwin Copeland commented today in reviewing last month's weather.

The average temperature last month was 19 degrees, compared to the 70-year average of 28.9 and the 28 degree average for February a year ago. Snowfall last month amounted to 12.5 inches, compared to the February normal of 8 inches, Copeland said.

The only other below normal Februarys following severe cold December and January were in the years of 1904, 1920 and 1936, records show.

The coldest February was in 1934 with 16.2 average. "Last month was the coldest since '48 when we had 17.6," Copeland said. The 23 below zero Feb. 26 and the minus 21 on the 27th were the second coldest consecutive nights, the observer pointed out. Last

Real Estate Tax Increases Protested

The Columbiana County auditor's office at Lisbon has received numerous complaints from residents protesting the increases in their real estate taxes.

Auditor Kenneth Bell said many telephone calls have been received and a number of residents have appeared in person at the Courthouse.

"We know there will be some errors in the tax rates, and we will correct them when they are found," Bell said. He added, however, that in cases where no errors have been made, taxpayers will have to appeal to the Board of Revision for adjustment of the rates.

"We've had no serious trouble so far," Bell said.

The Board of Revision is comprised of Bell, Vincent C. Judge, county treasurer, and Walter A. Hunston, president of the Board of County Commissioners.

Appeals to the board must be filed before the April 10 tax payment deadline, Bell said.

County tax rates increased generally as a result of the property reappraisal completed in 1961. Tax statements applying to the first half of 1962, payable now, were mailed this week.

Euromart Move May Aid Reds In Africa

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — It may sound far-fetched, but Britain's exclusion from the European Common Market could help the Communists in Africa.

In reprisal against President Charles de Gaulle's veto on British entry, Britain's friends forced a delay in a far-reaching agreement linking Western Europe with 18 African states. Sixteen of them are former French colonies.

The action did not come from pique alone. The other members of the Common Market—particularly Italy and the Netherlands—want to make sure that the English-speaking African countries can also get in on the aid-and-trade plan if they like.

The postponement was a shock to the 18 states, where the governments tend to be neutral, but cool toward communism.

The Reds have long delighted in baiting them as the willing pawns of "neo-colonialism." Now there is sure to be a Red chorus of "I told you so."

West German leaders, who play a major role in the Common Market, were warning that there could be a quick sign of Communist gains: a decision by some African states to recognize the Communist satellite regime in East Germany. East German agents are active in Africa with offers of aid.

One of their main objects is to get diplomatic recognition from a non-Communist government, something they have so far failed to achieve.

The barricades were erected under an ordinance passed by the Aldermanic Board Dec. 17.

White homeowners had urged their construction to discourage the movement of Negroes into a white neighborhood. They said racial tension had increased in the area because of pressures being put on white residents to sell to Negroes.

A group of white persons and Negroes started legal action against the city to have the barricades removed.

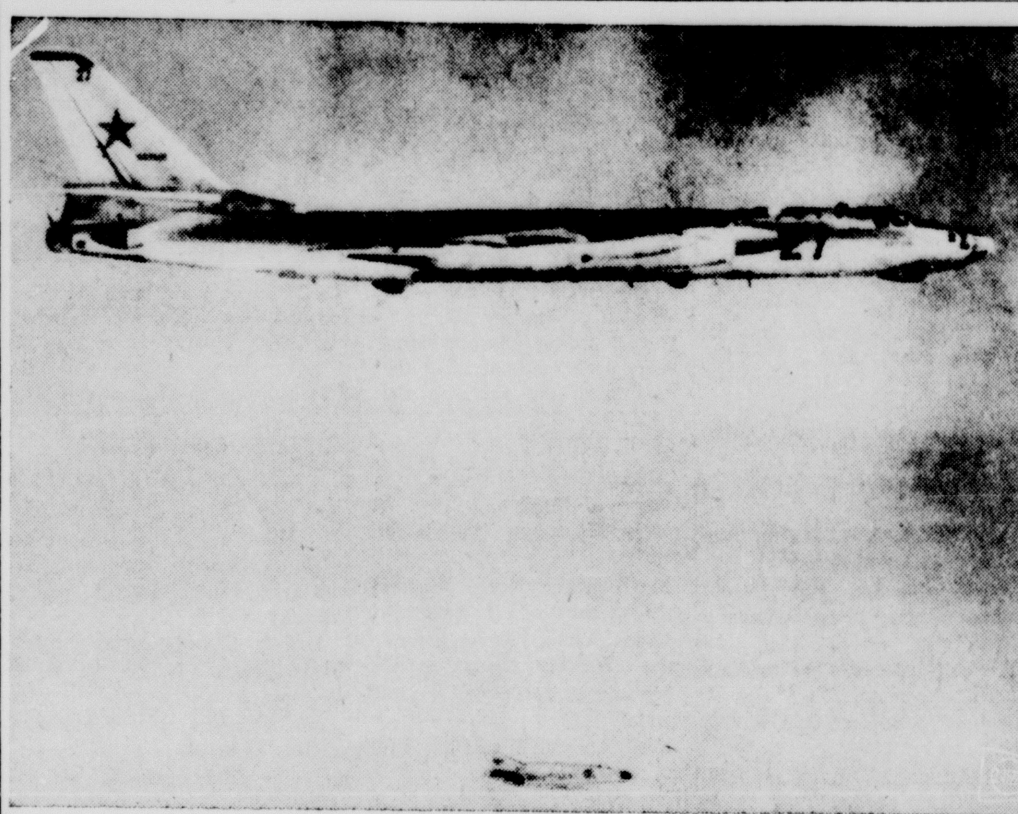

Another development this week was the purchase of a home in the Peyton Road white section by a Negro realtor. The realtor, C. C. Thornton, said he intends to occupy the house.

"Desirable as it is to promote the public peace by preventing race conflicts," the order said, "and important as is the preservation of the public peace, this aim cannot be accomplished by laws or ordinances which deny rights created or protected by the federal Constitution."

Mayor Ivan Allen Jr. said the city would not contest Whitman's ruling.

"The difficulties which brought about the necessity for the abandonment of the portions of Peyton and Harlan roads have served to focus the attention of the people of this great city to the many problems of finding ample living space for a large Negro population," he added.

Climaxes Racial Controversy

Atlanta's 'Berlin Wall' Comes Tumbling Down

ATLANTA (AP) — Atlanta's "Berlin Wall" has come tumbling down, climaxing a racial controversy which raged for weeks in this Deep South city.

Acting swiftly after a state judge ordered the wood and steel barricades dismantled, city officials had the barriers ripped out Friday night.

The barricades—called a Berlin Wall by opponents—were erected across Peyton and Harlan roads in the city's southwest section to create a buffer zone between white and Negro residential areas.

Superior Court Judge George P. Whitman Sr. issued an order prohibiting the city from maintaining the barriers.

"Desirable as it is to promote the public peace by preventing race conflicts," the order said, "and important as is the preservation of the public peace, this aim cannot be accomplished by laws or ordinances which deny rights created or protected by the federal Constitution."

Gospel-Singing Cowboy Shoots Panther In California

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP) — "Just when I saw the panther's eye, his ears kicked back and I knew he was going to spring. I hated to shoot him but I knew a panther had killed a man in San Diego several weeks ago so I couldn't let him run loose."

Thus did gospel-singing, straight-shooting cowboy Stuart Hamblen tell today how he killed a black panther that had terrorized the Conejo valley since its escape 36 hours earlier.

Mothers had kept their children indoors for two days when word spread that the 70-pound jungle-bred animal had escaped from the Jungland Wild Animal Compound, home of movie and television beasts.

Everyone thought that the sleek beast had headed for the hills to forage with the native California mountain lions.

Jungland Compound, an attraction for children, opened its doors Friday after offering a $1,500 reward for the escaped panther—dead or alive.

Many parents, figuring it to be the one place the panther was not likely to be, didn't hesitate to bring their youngsters to the compound.

Hamblen, a colorful western character around Hollywood, came too. As a big game hunter, who has bagged more than 100 mountain lions, he volunteered in search.

"I was thinking if he goes out and catches a child it would be a terrible shame," explained Hamblen. (The panther actually was a female.)

Hamblen met an old hunting pal at the compound. They joined forces and dogs.

"Ronnie Page and I circled outside the compound for three hours and our dogs didn't sniff once. That made us pretty sure the panther was still inside the compound."

Hamblen, armed with his 30-30 lion-hunting rifle, and Page with a pistol and a flashlight then tracked the beast to its hiding place under a warehouse building.

While small children romped nearby, laughing at the antics of the monkeys and other animals in the zoo, Hamblen, 54, and Page, 55, crawled under the building.

"Page held the light on him," said Hamblen. "It takes a lot of guts to face a panther with only a flashlight and pistol. I had my old lion huntin' rifle."

Crouched in a corner was the beast, its eyes gleaming. A split second later came an eerie snarl. That's when Hamblen's rifle barked. The first shot hit the cat in the head and three others fired for good measure also hit the beast.

Senator Says U. S. Now Uses 'Electronic Ear'

U.S. Officials Deny Statement, Insist Missions Continue

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., said today he was informed the United States has suspended low-level reconnaissance flights over Cuba and is using special "electronic ear" plane to listen in from outside Cuban territory.

Goldwater, an Air Force reserve major general, said in an interview that he was told the low-level flights were discontinued Feb. 9, three days after Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's nationwide television report on the Cuban military situation.

An informed government source said this was in error. The source said low-altitude flights were being carried out as the need arose for them and that the high-level U.S. reconnaissance flights were continuing.

Goldwater, a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said the "electronic ear" planes are equipped with sensitive devices able to register details of what is going on on Cuba down to the point of detecting a generator in operation.

These planes, operated by both the Navy and Air Force, are flown at moderately high altitudes over international waters and do not pass over Cuba itself.

They are relatively more vulnerable than the low-flying craft to the anti-aircraft missiles the Russians have installed in Cuba, one of which first missed but then reversed its course to home in and destroy a U2 during the October crisis.

The low-flying sorties are made at an altitude at which radar is not effective, and are gone almost as soon as they are seen. American military leaders think the Russians are unable to cope with such flights.

In the Feb. 6 report to the nation on Cuba, McNamara said high-altitude surveillance of Cuba was continuing and that low-level reconnaissance aircraft were "kept on a 24-hour alert basis for use whenever required."

The effectiveness of U.S. surveillance in Cuba has been a subject of debate in Congress, with some of the administration's critics contending that this country should have learned earlier than it did last year about the installation of offensive missiles in Cuba.

Congress' attention has been focused on another Cuban problem with the report of Central Intelligence Agency Director John A. McCone that from 1,000 to 1,500 Latin Americans went to Cuba last year for sabotage and guerrilla training and that more have gone this year.

The report was given to a House Foreign Affairs subcommittee Feb. 19 and a censored transcript was issued Friday.

McCone did not specify who was doing the training. But Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee said he was "surprised that there are not more students being trained for sabotage and subversion by the Soviet in Cuba."

Friday night the Navy said one of its destroyers inspecting a Cuban coastal freighter off Guantanamo tangled an anchor in the freighter's shroud—a guywire bracing a mast.

Earlier Cuba had charged that the destroyer, the Harold J. Ellison, took photographs for 45 minutes and then deliberately rammed the 75-foot Joven Amalia, which Cuba said was carrying food from Santiago, Chile, to Baracoa on the Cuban coast.

Bethel Friends To Occupy New Church on Sunday

The Bethel Friends Church will occupy its new edifice at 103 Spill: Road Poland on Sunday. Rev. Galen P. Weingart, formerly of the Salem area, is pastor of the church which was formed Aug. 31, 1960, at Struthers and on July 5, 1961, merged with a small congregation of Friends at East Lewistown.

The move Sunday culminates an extensive program of reorganization, merger and relocation which was begun three years ago and was largely made possible by a $27,000 gift by the Ohio Yearly Meeting of Friends headquarters at Damascus. The gift represented proceeds from the Mayfield Friends church near Cleveland when most of its membership was lost to the relocation of a major community industry.

The new Bethel Church facilities, representing an investment of $90,000 with land and parsonage will be dedicated March 24. Dedication Week services will have Rev. Willis Miller, pastor of the Country Chapel of Greenville, Pa., as speaker and Kenneth Wilson of Canton as song leader.

Church Speaker

Charles Woolery

Charles Woolery of Wheaton, Ill., a former U.S. military intelligence officer, will speak at the Alliance First Friends Church on Sunday at 10:45 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

His talk on "The Red Web" will deal with the threat of communism in the world.

Rev. Owen W. Glassburn is pastor of the Alliance Friends Church.

U.S. STEEL TO EXPAND

PITTSBURGH (AP)—U.S. Steel Corp. plans the "most significant expansion in years" of its Youngstown Ohio, district works.

Newly announced, the project involves two new finishing lines and six annealing furnaces to be housed in an extension of an existing building. Construction begins this summer and is expected to be done in 18 months.

Preach Christ crucified.

Not to be gruesome, but to be honest and realistic.

It cost God something to show man His love!

God became a man, walked the dusty roads of Palestine, was mocked, spit upon, and finally nailed to a cross.

God, in Jesus Christ, gave Himself for man's sake.

That fact must be told!

It must be told as it happened.

It must be told without "watering it down."

February Mayor's Office Receipts Drop

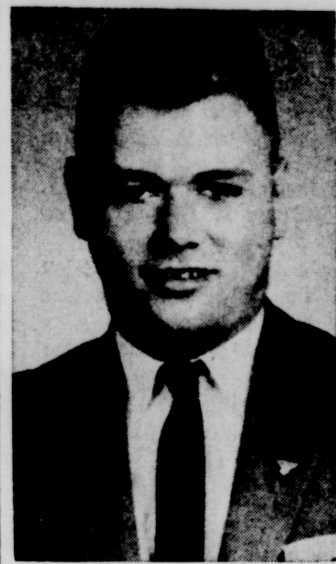

Mayor Dean B. Cranmer's office collected $2,204.20 in February. This was a decrease of $658.55 under office receipts in February, 1962, when $2,862.75 was collected.

Of the $2,204.20 collected by Mayor Cranmer last month, $2,024.10 went into the city's fund; $168.30 to the state; and $11.80 to Columbiana County.

Licenses yielded $50; intoxicimeters, $5; city ordinances, $861.80; city costs, $201.50; 55 per cent of highway patrol fines, $205.70; state costs $27; city overloads, $662; parking permits, $11.

The biggest drop in the mayor's office income this year was in the collection of fines for violations of city ordinances. The collection of $861.80 was $940.95 less than the February, 1962, collection of $1,802.75.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

What's Inside?

WHAT MAGIC INGREDIENTS DO THESE BOTTLES CONTAIN? Do they hold harmful, injurious poisons? Or are they filled with healing medicines and vitamins? Will they inflict pain, or will they cure disease?

But what does it matter? If the contents are bad, we can pour them out.

But the minds of children is an entirely different matter. A small human being can be filled with selfishness and hate, or he can be filled with sincerity and love. Unfortunately, evil is more quickly dispelled from a glass bottle than from the soul of a child. For in the human mind bad thoughts can grow, and as time goes on, it is more difficult to replace them with truth and love.

That is why it is so important to instill within our children a sense of right and wrong at an early age. Of course, by example, "you" can be a tremendous influence. But you need the help of your church—the wisdom of Christ's teachings. With them, you can fill your heart with the essential ingredients for a happy and fruitful life.

WHY are some people urging the federal government to spend billions more on electric power plants when the federal budget is already hard pressed to meet the nation's defense needs?

WHY are some people trying to get the government to spend money needlessly on federal electric transmission lines instead of using existing and planned facilities of the investor-owned electric light and power companies?

WHY do certain pressure groups keep pushing for more federal government electricity when the electric light and power companies can supply all the power the nation will ever need?

WHY should the federal government spend money needlessly when it can get money instead—through the additional taxes the investor-owned electric companies will produce if they supply all of the power for the future?

WHY should the federal government ever waste its effort on jobs American industry can do better, especially when there are so many other problems in the country and the world that only the government can deal with?

The answers to all of these questions are important to you—because they can help curb further waste of your tax money.

Someone's Funning

We don't know where Hal Boyle, the AP columnist, got his statistic about 49,000 gastric ulcer victims being absent from the job each work day.

We suspect someone was funning Boyle when they mailed in this throbbing item. Ulcer victims do not stay home from work unless they are new in the role, or have become so debilitated they can't get out to talk about it any longer. Surely there aren't that many first-ditch and last-ditch ulceratics each day.

We reject the 4,900 figure. It is unlike a statistic on Asian flu, because everybody stays home if he has Asian flu. Of course, if he isn't told he may think he has Spanish flu, or old-fashioned flu and come to work anyway. But that isn't likely when Asian flu is in vogue.

The real statistic on ulceritis as a sign of our unsettled times would be how many million anti-acid pills are gulped every day. Divide that by a factor of 12 and you would have the daily ulcer census. But no one has done this, and until someone does we shall continue to believe the ulcer census now is running up toward 10 million.

All we know is, there's a move afoot to install ulcer pill dispensers above drinking fountains in all places where one out of three employees now is "on the stuff."

The Issue With John F. Kennedy

President Kennedy says he is willing to cancel tax revision as one of his aims in 1963 if Congress will vote for tax reduction.

This had been expected. It was foreshadowed by hints dropped recently in statements by Kennedy administration spokesmen. It means the administration is determined to go through with its plan to stimulate the economy by reducing its tax take. It will scuttle all ideas about revising taxes in a swap for congressional compliance.

The fact is, of course, the administration never was deeply interested in tax revision anyway, least of all the kind everybody else had in mind when revision was mentioned. They wanted inequities removed.

Most of the Kennedy administration's revisions were for the benefit of the U.S. Treasury; their net effect would have been more instead of less revenue. In this respect, they would have had the opposite effect from that sought by the administration, which is to spur the economy by letting taxpayers keep more of their money.

THERE ARE two catches in the administration's program.

One catch is obvious. It is the fact that cutting taxes without cutting spending makes no sense to Americans who would expect a visit from the sheriff if they monkeyed with such an idea in their own affairs.

The program goes against the grain of orthodox finance.

Slow But Sure

It may take a long time to construct the 80-mile long Lake Erie to Ohio River freeway, but the eventual completion of this important north-south highway will be a boon to eastern Ohio counties, including Columbiana.

According to progress reports heard at this week's meeting of the River Lake Association with state highway department officials, work is going ahead as planned in the area of Ashtabula and East Liverpool, the terminal points of the two-lane highway that will cut through Columbiana County midway between Washingtonville and Columbiana village. The segment of the river-lake road from Route 164 south to Route 30 above East Liverpool is programmed for 1964.

The Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway construction is requiring time, money and engineering skill, but progress reports are encouraging. Atty. Francis Lang of East Liverpool and A. P. Morris of Salem, president and vice-president, respectively, of the Association, deserve public commendation for their untiring efforts to keep the project alive.

Dear Truman Twill:

The flu bug was kind enough to include our house in his visitations and while I was semi-delirious with joy at the honor of his visit he gave me a message which went something like this:

"You people with your physical fitness programs make me laugh. We flu bugs thought it was about time to show you proud mortals just where you get off. When it comes to physical fitness, we can teach you plenty."

"Look at yourself now, lying in bed coughing, dripping, sweating and wondering what tomorrow will bring. Ha, ha, Me, I feel fine. Never felt better, although I have had better carcasses to work on." The bug flexed his muscles.

"And you aren't the only one we have gotten the best of. We have epidemics growing at a boom-rate all over the country. This is our peak production season, and we are near an all-time high. Our experts predict we may set a record," he bragged.

"Your 50-mile hikes are baloney. Some of you athletic types give us flu bugs free rides all over the world at jet speed. We now cross continents and oceans in a few hours with no blistered feet and without bending a leg. We are in better condition after such jaunts than before we started."

"The main reason for our success," he confided, "is that your puny security efforts to block our infiltration are futile because many of us are so small we cannot be filtered. Some of your fifth columns could take lessons from us on infiltration. We like to think of ourselves as a sixth column, seventh column or as high in columns as you care to count."

"You even are able to knock out some of our elite troops, the viruses, but you have to admit our viruses are versatile and could still win the war."

The other catch is less obvious. We think President Kennedy and his advisers may not have comprehended it yet.

It is the fact the Kennedyites have dreamed up a mechanistic scheme. They believe in a mechanistic world—a world in which the outcome of actions can be determined as precisely as the outcome of experiments in physics and chemistry.

Most of us are barred from belief in this philosophy of mechanism by our own experience. We think the young men of the Kennedy administration will learn better as they grow older. We do not trust their judgment in this matter.

THEY ARE SURE if they lift from $10 to $13 billion off the taxpayers' back there will be a great increase in the national rate of growth and this will offset the federal deficit. But the rest of us are sure of something else.

There will be a deficit and the rate of growth never will overtake the federal government's spending spree.

Whether we pay our taxes now through the nose or pay interest on more and more borrowed money ad infinitum and eventually are wiped out by inflation doesn't even seem like a choice. We prefer to pay the taxes now, while hoping and praying that Congress will come to its senses long enough to cut back the federal rate of spending.

It's our only chance, mechanistic theories to the contrary notwithstanding.

It's the only way to maintain faith in the financial integrity of the federal government. This point simply has been ignored in the Kennedy administration's mechanistic malarkey about cutting taxes while boosting spending, letting the devil take the deficit and hoping for something to turn up.

Road to Citizenship

"Young Citizens in Action" is the appropriate theme for the observance of 4-H Week. (March 2-9) which will attract 2,800 boys and girls in the Columbiana-Mahoning county agricultural district.

Our district is fortunate to have had a vigorous 4-H club program down through the years, with many adults lending able direction to the youths in their projects which stress mental, moral, spiritual and physical fitness. Columbiana County's 1,600 members in 90 clubs will mark the week with a rally at Lisbon, while Mahoning County's 1,200 members and their 84 clubs will have individual programs to celebrate their week.

With such dedication to 4-H (head, heart, hands and health), these youngsters are bound to become our good citizens of tomorrow.

On Monday of last week, the Supreme Court of the United States ruled that 187 persons arrested in Columbia, S. C., for "breach of the peace" were merely exercising their rights of free speech when then engaged in a picketing demonstration against segregation, and that, even though city officials thought a riot was imminent, the police should, though city officials thought a riot was imminent, the police should, in effect, have waited until someone got hurt before recognizing it officially as a riot.

On Tuesday of last week, the United Press International carried a dispatch from Miami, Fla., as follows:

"An American Nazi wearing a khaki uniform and swastika armpatch was hauled off to jail today when his picketing at the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith drew an angry crowd."

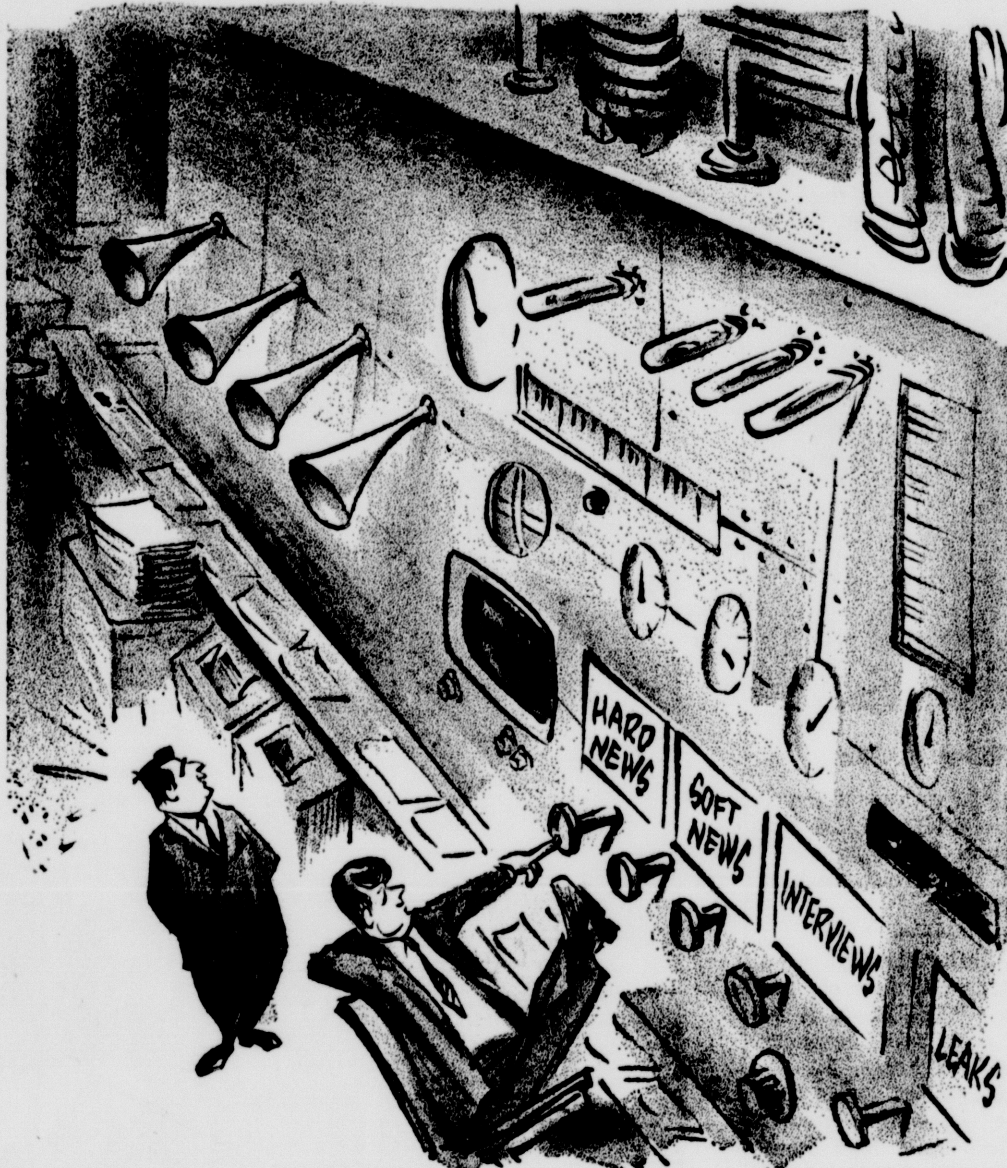

"Police said if 21-year-old David Howard Peterson of Minneapolis had not been taken into protective custody, violence would have erupted in the crowd of 150 that gathered shortly after the picketing began.

"Peterson, who admitted being a member of the American Nazi party, carried a sign saying: 'Communism is Jewish, ADL Anti-Defamation League is Jew secret police.'"

Maybe the Miami police didn't have time to read the Supreme Court decision. Maybe they were not yet aware that the "law of the land" now is that name-calling, defamation of any race or religion or incitement to violence cannot be stopped by arrests until fighting actually starts and injuries or deaths occur.

"What's New, Chief?"

'Computer Generated' Jobs

By VICTOR RIESEL

PHOENIX, Ariz. Within a few days President Kennedy will talk quite confidentially with his advisers about unemployment. There are now some five million jobless—or 6 per cent of those who must work for a living are out of such work. But few unemployed are here in this "Valley of the Sun" city.

This computer community—once a haystack for the horse cavalry of old Fort McDowell—makes jobs for the nation, it doesn't wipe them out. For here in one of the new smokeless electronics complexes, a score of firms along miracle miles make the parts for the memory computers and the memory machines themselves which have become a national industry of one million new jobs. "Computer generated" jobs, the experts here call them.

How many of the five million jobless have been thrown out of work by automation, no one really knows. Perhaps President Kennedy's experts will tell him when they meet.

ONE THING is certain here. The automation industry, not including the servicing of the 10,700 computers already in use across the land, is making more jobs than it allegedly has destroyed. How?

One expert here tells me that it takes as many as 1,500 different parts, made up of 2½ million pieces and more than five miles of electric wiring, to build the insides of a computer or memory machine.

But it's more than the production of parts which makes the new jobs. It's the wizardry they'll accomplish when deftly assembled.

From the Files

10 YEARS AGO — Mrs. Edna Stewart has been appointed secretary in the school board clerk's office and Mrs. Jane Bird has been appointed Junior High School secretary.

25 YEARS AGO — Miss Margie Kniseley, contralto, will be sent as representative of the Salem Musical Culture Club to the state junior music contest at Dayton March 25. Plans for Miss Kniseley's representing the Salem club were discussed at a meeting at the home of Miss Gloria Gibson of S. Lincoln Ave.

35 YEARS AGO — A. P. Morris was elected exalted ruler of Salem Lodge No. 305, B.P.O. Elks, at the annual election Thursday. Morris succeeds Paul H. Mead.

bled by the space age workers.

There is a General Electric computer plant here. And a GE installation in far-off Schenectady, N. Y. Recently a computer here talked to a computer there—some 2,500 miles away.

This made history. It was one of the first memory-to-memory computer communications over that distance.

What made this unique—and ripped open the doors to vast projects—was not only the fact that one machine gave orders to another but that the message was relayed via Telstar.

THIS IS the communications satellite that was then orbiting over the Pacific Ocean. The conversation leaped over 13,000 miles in split seconds.

This was part of a test by GE's computer engineers. They wished to prove the feasibility of a nationwide telecommunications network involving computers and the latest in microwave and satellite transmission.

It isn't all so lofty. They make GE general purpose computers here which can calculate cake-mix formulas, predict hurricane paths, study the oceans and even maintain auto registry records for an entire state.

They measure "life support" requirements in those two- and three- and four-man space capsules we'll soon be lobbing into the skies.

I gather from a GE report that these machines have now made it possible for banks across the land to total checks and balance accounts in 32 millionths of a second.

THE SPEED at which most of these transactions are processed is in terms of micro-seconds. It was explained to me that for comparative purposes, so my layman's mind could grasp it, a micro-second is to one second what one second is to 11 days.

And this is considered "slow" compared with what is on the drawing boards of the companies which turn out the computers here and at other electronic capitals.

Yet this is just an infant industry—less than 10 years old. Typical of its job-making potential is what has happened to many companies here. The GE people take themselves as an example.

They started here in 1956 by moving their computer operation from Syracuse, N. Y. A handful of administrative employees opened Phoenix.

All told there were about 100 employees. When I was here in 1961, they had 2,000. Today they report 4,000. And they expect the tribe will increase.

SOME 3,500 employees turn out electronic data-processing computers in a 400,000-square-foot modern plant. An additional 500 specialists produce industrial computers in another building two miles distant. These are used in steel mills, utilities and chemical industries.

Certainly these have replaced workers in other parts of the country. The problem, therefore, is not to battle the automation industry, which has created a million jobs and will create more each day, but to aid, and train, and shift the displaced to where there is work to be had.

That is what President Kennedy and a small group of specialists will be discussing shortly.

By PETER EDSON

In the surprising view of Sen. William Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, the United States faces the "real problem" in West Europe and not in Cuba. In his view, Cuba is merely an "irritation" that "diverts us from Europe."

Senator Fulbright's estimate of the international situation does not contribute to a far-sighted American foreign policy, according to well-informed diplomats.

The fact is that despite the current rift in the Western alliance—with or without a sulking President de Gaulle—Russia has reached a stalemate in Europe where communism is clearly on the decline as a political force. Little room for Red expansion remains in the West without the risk of an atomic conflict.

TO BE SURE there is always the problem of West Berlin which Russia would rather leave unsolved. Like a quack doctor who profits more by keeping his rich patient ill than well, Nikita Khrushchev does not really seek to end the Berlin crisis. Why should he? The Russians are always in a position to turn the "unsolved crisis" on and off whenever they want to blackmail the West and gain new concessions from the United States.

But there is hardly a country in West Europe today where Moscow could engineer a successful revolution. And the Russians have no illusions about it.

The situation is vastly different in the Western Hemisphere. According to Khrushchev's Marxist-Leninist doubletalk, Latin America is already "ripe" for revolution and "national" wars of liberation. In this case the Soviet premier agrees even with his Chinese rival, Mao Tse-tung.

CUBA WILL THUS remain the key to Soviet aggressive policy in the Western Hemisphere until Communists seize power in some JUSTICE Tom Clark, who was the only member of the high court to uphold the doctrine that a threat of violence can be checked by the police, had this to say in his dissenting opinion last Monday:

"To say that the police may not intervene until the riot has occurred is like keeping out the doctor until the patient dies."

Justice Stewart, speaking for the majority of the highest court in the land, said:

"The state courts have held that the petitioners' conduct constituted breach of the peace under state law, and we may accept their decision as binding upon us to that extent. But it nevertheless remains our duty in a case such as this to make an independent examination of the whole record. And it is clear to us that in arresting, convicting, and punishing the petitioners under the circumstances disclosed by this record, South Carolina infringed the petitioners' constitutionally protected rights of free speech, free assembly and freedom to petition for redress of their grievances."

THE EPISODE took place on the grounds of the State House while the Legislature was actually in session. Justice Clark studied the same record and testimony. He pointed out that nearly 200 demonstrators marched with placards bearing slogans such as "Down With Segregation" and "You May Jail Our Bodies But Not Our Souls," and then proceeded to stir up the trouble. He added:

"The activity continued for approximately 45 minutes during the busy noon-hour period, while a crowd of some 300 persons congregated in front of the State House and around the area directly in front of its entrance, known as the 'Horseshoe,' which was used for vehicular as well as pedestrian ingress and egress."

"During this time there were no efforts made by the city officials to hinder the petitioners in their efforts to the traffic problems resulting from petitioners' activities."

"It was only after the large crowd had gathered, among which the city manager and chief of police recognized potential troublemakers, and which together with the students had become massed on and around the 'Horseshoe' so closely that vehicular and pedestrian traffic was materially impeded, that any action against the petitioners was taken."

"Then the city manager, in what both the state intermediate and (state) Supreme Court found to be the utmost good faith, decided that danger to peace and safety was imminent. Even at this juncture no orders were issued by the city manager for the police to break up the crowd, now about 500 persons, and no arrests were made."

"Instead, he approached the recognized leader of the petitioners and requested him to tell the various groups of petitioners to disperse within 15 minutes, failing which they would be arrested."

Khrushchev's Fertile Acre

other Latin American country.

This is the chief reason why the Russians are so determined to retain a foothold in Fidel Castro's dictatorship even after their failure to establish missile bases there. In the view of United Nations specialists on Russia, this is also the real significance behind Moscow's announcement last December that a Soviet jet (TU-114) made a non-stop flight from Havana to Russia.

Premier Khrushchev, obviously in an attempt to appease President Kennedy, decided to withdraw some Soviet combat troops stationed in Cuba. But at the same time, the Russians are speeding the establishment of direct air communications with Havana without the need to land at "capitalist" airports and risk a search of their airliners carrying weapons to Latin America.

NOTHING, IN FACT, illustrates better the interest of Russia and her East European satellites in the "future" of the Western Hemisphere than the efforts they devote to beaming radio propaganda in Spanish and Portuguese. Latin America is now the primary target of this pernicious form of Red offensive.

Broadcasts by Radio Moscow aimed at Latin America increased by 60 per cent between 1960 and 1963. They now total 45 hours a week in Spanish and 17 hours a week in Portuguese.

Over the same period the Red propaganda to Latin America by five times. Radio Peking now transmits for 35 hours a week in Spanish and 10 hours a week in Portuguese.

A similar stepping up of radio warfare in Latin America has been carried out by Moscow's East European satellites. Together the Red transmissions total over 35 hours a day, or nearly 400 hours a week.

IN ADDITION, Fidel Castro has 16 stations at his disposal which broadcast over 40 hours a

"Even though the city manager might have been honestly mistaken as to the imminence of danger this was certainly a reasonable request by the city's top executive officer in an effort to avoid a public brawl. But the response of petitioners and their leader was defiance rather than cooperation."

Justice Clark noted that for the next 15 minutes the petitioners "conducted what the South Carolina Supreme Court found to be 'a noisy demonstration in defiance of (the dispersal) orders.'"

THE BASIC question is whether the local police have a right to prevent a riot or whether they must wait until casualties actually occur.

The American people have always felt that local disturbances are for the states and cities to handle.

The only available remedy now is the passage by Congress of a law taking away from the Supreme Court of the United States any right to consider cases involving a breach of the peace when a state supreme court has already passed on the issues involved.

There is precedent for this type of legislation.

The Constitution itself specifically gives Congress the right to pass a law limiting or removing appellate jurisdiction from the Supreme Court of the United States in such cases as the lawmakers may deem desirable.

History Today

Today is Saturday, March 2, the 61st day of 1963. There are 304 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this day in 1949, an American B50 bomber, Lucky Lady II, completed the first non-stop around-the-world flight in history. The trip took 84 hours, 1 minute, during which refuelings at an undisclosed altitude and speed were made at four bases.

On this day:

In 1775, patriots at Providence, R.I., publicly burned 300 pounds of tea and obnoxious British documents.

In 1836, Texas adopted a declaration of independence from Mexico.

In 1863, Congress set a standard gauge for U.S. railways.

In 1917, Puerto Rico was made a territory and its inhabitants were granted U.S. citizenship.

In 1945, the American flag was raised again over Corregidor in the Philippines following its recapture from the Japanese.

Today's birthdays:

Composer Marc Blitzstein is 58. Television producer Desi Arnaz is 46.

day, mostly in the direction of Latin America. Radio Havana's daily programs include instructions to armed guerrilla groups in Venezuela and Panama. The Cuban broadcasts are tailored to the countries to which they are beamed.

The Russians and their satellites would hardly expend such vast sums of money on a bankrupt Cuba and on radio propaganda to Latin America for nothing. They make no secret of their Marxist-Leninist conviction that the next "round of revolutions and national wars of liberation" will occur in Latin America.

Premier Khrushchev's temporary Cuban setback last October, it is now believed, caused the postponement of a series of coordinated revolts in Venezuela, Panama and other Latin American countries.

Hints From Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

DEAR HELOISE: Is there any way to whiten tapes on venetian blinds?

LOUISE SHERMAN.

DEAR LOUISE: Outside of bleaching them — and if you happen to have the wooden blinds be sure and check what type paint on them, because if you put the whole blind in your bathtub in strong bleaches and detergents, it is likely to remove some of the paint — I only know of one other method. I have used this myself and find it very satisfactory.

Others may not agree with me. If you have any ideas write in! That's what we're here for, to help each other.

THE BLINDS can be unstrung and the tapes removed (if you have that wooden type with may be not-so-good paint) and the tapes soaked, washed and bleached and the blind restrung again.

I do not recommend this as I tried it once on eight blinds. Not only did it take me two weeks to string them back, but when I bleached my tapes not knowing that the tapes were so old and rotten that they fell apart after restringing a couple).

This upset me because I had to go buy all new tapes!

One can go to any dime or department store and buy some adhesive-backed plastic-type paper and cut this into strips the width of the tape itself. This is easily applied, patching does not show and the best part about it all ... for kitchens and bathrooms ... the vapors, soil and grease can be wiped off in a jiffy with a sponge!

I found this out when I finally purchased one new venetian blind or my kitchen ... I immediately put this adhesive paper on the new tapes, and it prevented the grease and residue from penetrating the tape itself.

THE KEY part about this — it gives a little individual decor to your kitchen!

As the venetian blind tape is a little over an inch and a half wide you can rest assured that your paper will go a long way!

I recommend (before removing the back of the paper) that you turn the paper upside down, take a yard stick and make lines with a pencil the width of your specific tapes, and then cut it. I found this was much better than cutting from the top side which sometimes left a pencil mark that had to be erased.

I also found while visiting one executive's office whose walls were paneled in walnut that we could take a walnut pattern paper and apply it to his venetian blind tapes.

This gave the appearance of an actual strip of walnut holding up the blinds. It was fabulous! The tapes matched his walls and saved dusting.

Love,

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Could you tell me if there is any method of bringing wool garments (that have been shrunk during washing) back to their original size?

MRS. L. M. WOOD.

Anybody have the answer to this? I've looked, I've tested and I still can't find one. Many people who write in with this problem after washing woolen blankets, sweaters, and so forth. If there is an answer would you please let us know? Send your letters to Heloise in care of The Salem News.

Letters do not have to be signed to appear in this column.

Love,

DEAR HELOISE: I recently moved into a new home with a built-in kitchen dinette nook.

I found that I could keep the back part of the dinette set clean (where the seat cushion meets the back cushion) by using a rubber or plastic cake spatula. Just run the spatula along and into the crevices and all crumbs come out easily. The crumbs, I then pick up with a damp dish cloth.

DOROTHY COPECK.

In reply to te woman's query of whether she can use a tea bag over and over again, I once heard of a man who used the same tea bag 8 times! Then he slit it open and used the remaining tea leaves for snuff. Finally he sold the bag to a midget for a table napkin. He suffered no ill after effects!

A MAN.

This letter was edited and re-edited. But it brought such laughter into our home that I thought I should share it with you!

Big Balloons Aid U. S. In Mars Study

PALESTINE, Tex. (AP)—Giant tandem balloons floated 15 miles above earth today while a 36-inch telescope, slung below them, gazed at the mysterious planet Mars.

Among other things, scientists hoped to record data that will help determine whether life, as we know it, exists on the "Red Planet."

The rig consists of a launch balloon, a main balloon and a gondola, linked together vertically. The launch balloon, 75 feet in diameter when fully inflated, is on top, and the main balloon, 230 feet in diameter, in the middle. The gondola contains the telescope and instruments. It is 600 feet from the top of the launch balloon to the bottom of the gondola.

The tandem rig, launched late Friday from the National Scientific Balloon Flight station as part of the Stratoscope II project, made a "beautiful" takeoff, officials said.

Officials expected to bring the 6-ton rig down today near Columbus, Ga., but last-minute changes in the weather could alter the retrieving point many miles.

CONTRACT TALKS DELAYED

CLEVELAND (AP) — Negotiations have been recessed again in the contract dispute of the striking United Rubber Workers Local 3 and the Ohio Rubber Co. in Willoughby. Issues include job security and protection of seniority rights.

The union, which claims 900 of the companies 1,000 hourly-paid employees, struck Jan. 27 over failure to reach agreement on a new contract. A union spokesman said only three strikers have followed a recent company request to return to work or be replaced.

Canton Airmen One Of 9 Plane Victims

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force today identified airman 2. C. Martin C. Jones of Canton, Ohio, as the ninth victim of a KC135 tanker plane crash in Alaska Wednesday night.

Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. David J. Jones of 1225 28th St. N.E. Canton, was a hitchhiking passenger aboard the plane. The other victims were the seven crewmen and an air policeman on the ground. There had been some question earlier as to whether the ninth victim was aboard the plane or on the ground.

Greenford, United Victors In Class A Play

Lisbon Halted By Cardinal Mooney 58-49 In Tourney

Bobcats Dump Lowellville, Eagles Humble W. Reserve

By LYNN BROWNE
Greenford High School's Bobcats and the Golden Eagles of United Local both qualified for the final round of the Mahoning-Columbiana County Class A Sectional as they emerged victorious in action Friday night at Struthers Field House.

Greenford gained the finals by downing a game Lowellville Rockets aggregation 57-48 while United Local turned back Western Reserve's Blue Devils 58-42.

COACH JERRY SUESS' Bobcats had to go to the foul line to claim their victory over the spirited Lowellville boys. The Rockets spotted the Bobcats many inches in height but visibly out-hustled their opponents.

Lowellville out-shot the Bobcats 22-20 from the floor but Greenford connected on 17 of 30 free throw attempts while the losers cashed in on four of their 10 charity tosses.

Height was the biggest factor in the Bobcats' victory as they had control of the boards throughout the game and scored many of their buckets on second and third attempts.

LOWELLVILLE, REALIZING the lanky Bobcats' advantage, was forced to shoot from the outside and did a creditable job but couldn't contain the victors.

Greenford jumped to an early margin and held a six-point margin midway in the opening canto. Lowellville battled back, however, and was only down 16-14 going into the second frame.

The second period was close with Greenford spurting late in the half to lead 29-23 at intermission.

GREENFORD STAYED in front in the third frame and was on the right end of a 39-35 score as the game entered the final eight minutes.

The win was Greenford's third of the season over the Rockets. They won a squeaker, 46-45, in the first contest and were victorious 76-71 in overtime in their next meeting.

Four Greenford players ended the fray in double figures. Rich Arnold was high as he stuffed the basket with six floor shots and two free throws for 14 followed by Bob Cook with 12. Dave Tye garnered all of his 11 points at the foul line and Frank Hofman chipped in 10.

LOWELLVILLE'S LARRY Rotunno copped game scoring honors, riddling the nets with six goals and four free throws for 16 counters. Jerry Benson added 12 to the losing cause.

Greenford will battle Coach Larry Joseph's United Golden Eagles at Struthers next Friday in the lower bracket finals at 8:50 p.m. The upper bracket tilt between Crestview and Springfield Local will begin at 7:30.

Coach Joseph's Eagles had little trouble in their victory over Western Reserve last night.

HIS CHARGES TOOK immediate control of the game and had rolled up a 13-point margin (20-7) by the end of the first canto.

United kept up its relentless pace in the second frame and left the floor at halftime with a comfortable 35-18 margin.

In the third period Western Reserve made a valiant attempt at a comeback but their efforts proved vain as the winners matched them point for point and retained the 17-point lead they held at half-time.

GOING INTO THE fourth period ahead 47-30, United failed to hit on any goal attempts. They did, however, sink 11 of 14 foul

West Virginia Triumphs 81-63

Duke Rolls 82-65 In Tourney Test

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Favorites Duke and West Virginia, safely past a couple of major obstacles on the road to the NCAA playoffs, have moved into the finals of their conference tourneys while Princeton suddenly has the whip hand in the Ivy League race.

There was little clarification in the Far West, however, where California and Southern Cal scored upset victories on their home courts Friday and left the Big Six still locked in a five-way struggle. Southern Cal edged UCLA 62-60 and California tripped up Washington 50-45.

Duke, ranked second in the nation, stormed over North Carolina State 82-65 in the semifinals of the Atlantic Coast Conference tourney at Raleigh, N.C. Friday night and moved into Saturday's finals against Wake Forest a team the Blue Devils have beaten three times this season by a total of 70 points.

Wake Forest advanced by nipping North Carolina 56-55 on a tip-in by Bob Woollard with six seconds to play.

West Virginia stormed over Furman 81-63 in a semifinal of the Southern Conference tourney at Richmond, Va., avenging a previous defeat by the Paladins.

The Mountaineers take on Davidson, 75-67 victors over Virginia Tech, in Saturday's finals. Sophomore Bill Bradley scored a school record 39 points and led shots to win easily.

Ken Votaw was the big point-getter for United as he collected six goals and seven foul tosses for 19. Bill McGranahan and Joe Reeves also ended the game in double figures as they meshed 13 and 12 points, respectively. Dick Owen had 10 points for the losers.

Princeton to a 78-65 victory over visiting Cornell. It was the Tigers eighth straight Ivy League triumph and left them on top with a 10-3 record. Penn, now 9-4, fell from a share of first when they were upset by Columbia, 70-66 at Philadelphia. Yale scored an 80-55 Friday.

Santa Clara pulled into a share of second place in the West Coast Athletic Conference, edging Pepperdine 76-71 in overtime. Santa Clara is now tied with St. Mary's, each with a 7-2 mark. San Francisco leads at 7-1.

Oklahoma City's 13-game winning string was broken by Houston's 75-73 triumph on the Chiefs' home court. Oklahoma City, with a 17-9 record, has an at-large berth in the NCAA tourney.

Three other NCAA entrants—Southwest Conference champion Texas and at-large selections Oregon State and Seattle—warmed up for tourney play with victories. Texas beat Arkansas 99-86, Oregon State blasted Washington State 79-56 and Seattle defeated Portland 69-61.

Jim Kerwin clinched the Southeastern scoring title with 28 points in Tulane's 77-65 victory over Louisiana State, while Kansas beat Missouri 72-68 in a game that was marred by two fist fights.

St. Joseph's, Pa., beat Dayton 70-62, Harvard edged Brown 62-58 and Texas A&M defeated Texas Tech 96-83 in other major games. Tech 96-83 in other major games.

VERSATILE INDIAN—Gene Green, heavy hitting utility man who was the Cleveland Indians' best pinch hitter in 1962, surveys at Tucson, Ariz., training camp, a load of gloves, plus a catching outfit and a bat in a display of his versatility. Green has been used in the past as an outfielder, a catcher and a first baseman.

At Indians Training Camp:

Woody Held Tries Out New Positions

By CHUCK SUCH

(Special to Salem News)

TUCSON — Woody Held hopes Tony Martinez can make it as a regular at shortstop with the Cleveland Indians this season. In fact, Held is rooting for Martinez to make it.

That seems quite unusual for Held has been Cleveland's regular shortstop for the past four years.

"I don't want to play shortstop," Held said frankly. "It's too hard on the legs. After a doubleheader my legs feel like they are made of rubber."

Held has been troubled with knee injuries over the years. He points out that the sudden stops and starts at shortstop have made life more miserable with each passing season.

"I'll be working out at three positions — short, third base and center field," Held said. "They're planning on three kids for those positions. They don't expect all three to make it. I'm hoping Martinez does make it."

MAX ALVIS is the youngster, who will get the big chance at third base and Vic Davalillo gets the big shot in center field.

"I'd just as soon play third base or center field," Held said. "But I want to play. I'd rather be traded than sit on the bench."

"Anyway, it's quite unusual to have competition for a job. I've had it made for at least the past three years. I sort of welcome this competition. It'll be fun."

"One of the reasons I reported early for spring training is so I can get a head start for a job. I'm 30 years old now and with each passing year, it takes just a little longer to get into shape," Held added.

HELD HAS BEEN in organized baseball since 1951. He was a member of the New York Yankees chain and later traded to Kansas City.

Frank Lane swapped Roger Maris, Preston Ward, and pitcher Dick Tomaneck to Kansas City for Held and Vic Power in 1958.

Over Lane's loud objections, Joe Gordon, then manager of the Indians, switched Held from the outfield to shortstop in 1959. He has been the Tribe's shortstop since and a very good one.

As shortstops go, he has done an exceptional job in the field. His shotgun arm and a fine pair of hands have been big assets. He always maintained a respectable batting average among shortstops although his numerous strikeouts haven't added to his popularity with the fans.

Yet, Held swings a powerful bat. In four seasons, he has connected for 92 home runs and those kind of shortstops just can't be found.

Held thinks he will do better at the plate if he plays another position.

"I won't be as tense," he pointed out.

MANAGER BIRDIE TEBBETTS was pleased with the excellent condition in which Held reported.

"Woody is one of the most valuable players on this club," Tebbetts said. "He can play anywhere in the infield or outfield. In my book, that's a valuable man."

Held looks exceptionally strong this spring. He reported a few pounds over his playing weight of last year. In workouts, he already has been belting the ball for distance.

"I left my partner in charge of our dude ranch in Wyoming in December and I went back to Sacramento, Calif.," Held said. "I have a brick wall in my backyard and I spent some time throwing baseballs against the wall and fielding them. That's about all the work I did. But I feel good this spring."

Tebbetts hopes Held is headed for one of his best seasons.

"If all three of these kids can beat him out, we're going to have a darn good ball club, because these youngsters will have to be very good to win a job from him," Tebbetts stated.

"I like having Held around," Tebbetts added. "With him, we'll have a pretty good one — man bench."

Blue Devils In Contention All The Way Before Bowling

By MARK W. MILLER

News Sports Editor

Hitting on 51 per cent of its shots from the field, Cardinal Mooney knocked Lisbon out of the Class AA Sectional Tournament 58-49 before 2,460 fans at Youngstown South Field House Friday night.

It was a close contest all the way, with the lead exchanging hands on numerous occasions.

The Blue Devils finished the campaign with a 15-5 record.

Both teams used 3-2 zone defenses. Mooney got the outside shooting it needed to crack Lisbon's zone, while the Blue Devils used their slight height advantage to make it a thriller.

In the first period Craig Pannier tallied all of Lisbon's seven points. Joe Negro made six of the seven markers chalked up by Cardinal Mooney.

ONE OF NIGRO'S buckets swished the nets as the buzzer sounded to end the canto as he stole the basketball and raced in for an easy layup.

Lisbon was a great foul shooting aggregation as the Blue Devils made 15 of 17 charity tosses for a spectacular 88.2 per cent.

Substitute Larry Webber came off the bench once again to keep the Blue Devils in the fray. He entered in the second period and went on to collect 15 points in the next three.

In the first eight minutes that Webber played, he made nine of his team's 15 points and at half time Lisbon held a 22-20 margin.

Ron Crosser netted only one basket during the game. He canned his shot just as the buzzer ended the half to give the Blue Devils their two point margin at intermission.

MOONEY GOT ROLLING in the second half as the Cardinals took a 36-35 lead at the end of the third frame.

Lisbon had 13 turnovers and had two shots blocked. The Blue Devils were clever ball handlers and didn't throw a bad pass.

Only once did Cardinal Mooney throw the ball away. The Cardinals had nine miscues and had two field goal attempts blocked.

Larry McPherson, who cleared the boards of 10 rebounds for Lisbon, missed the only two fouls not made by the Blue Devils.

Weber and Pannier each had 15 points including five straight fouls apiece.

From the field, Lisbon attempted and canned 17 shots for a 34 per cent.

Cardinal Mooney tried 45 shots from the field and swished the nets 23 times for its high 51 per cent. The Cardinals cashed in on only 12 of 24 from the foul line for 50 per cent.

Nigro made 90 per cent of his shots as he hit on 10 of 11 field goal attempts and three of five honors. Denny Misko chipped in with 19 and Fred Holden had 13.

Coach Jerry Kuzma will send his Cardinals (11-7) into battle against a powerful Hubbard (19-1) in a bracket finals clash at South Wednesday at 8 p.m.

The winner will advance to the district schedule for South Field House in two weeks.

LISBON—49
Pannier 5-5-15; Klug 3-3-9; L. McPherson 1-0-2; Crosser 1-0-2; Rose 0-1-1; Webber 5-5-15; D. McPherson 1-1-3. Total 17-15-49.

2 Schools Clash In Tourney Tuesday

Defensive Salem Meets North Next

A tight defense may make the difference as Salem makes its second start in tournament play against Youngstown North in the Class AA Sectional semi-finals at Struthers Field House Tuesday at 8:45 p.m.

In the last five games the Quakers have continued to improve defensively. The 44 points the Quakers held Struthers to last Thursday was the lowest they held anyone all season. And, it will pay the Quakers to maintain that tight defense if they want to proceed down the tournament trail.

Coach Andy Sarinchak's Vikings have won only four times while dropping 13. North's probable starting lineup will include three seniors and two sophomores.

SALEM, RAGGED AFTER A 12-day layoff, had trouble finding the field goal range in its victory over the Wildcats. The Quakers coached by Johnny Cabas had one of their poorest shooting percentage nights, hitting on only 26.7 of their field goal attempts.

But that Salem tradition of determination, poise and confidence was still there, and the aggressiveness displayed by the Quakers was a dominate factor in their first tourney win.

The Vikings have beaten only Youngstown South, Woodrow Wilson, McDonald and Campbell. The Memorial verdict was sort of an upset as North dropped a 15-point decision to the losers during the regular campaign.

Starting for the Vikings will be sophomore Ed Ellis, who is the tallest player on the squad at 6-2. Robin Boron 5-11, Joe Mascarella 5-8, Kenneth Tony 5-11 and Nate Clark 5-9 are also members of the first unit.

SALEM COACH JOHN CABAS will go with Bill Beery 6-1, Rick Sweitzer 6-1, Bob King 6-5, Marlin Walker 6-0 and Rick Platt 5-9.

The Red and Black own a 107-71 decision over South, a score that set the Salem school record Jan. 29.

Salem is averaging about 72 points a game, while the 18 opponents are averaging 60, but any opponent in a tournament must be viewed as a tough contender.

Pittsburgh Will Be Younger, Speedier For '63 Campaign

By TED SMITS

Associated Press Sports Editor

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP)—The rebuilt Pittsburgh Pirates, faster, younger, and stronger on defense but probably weaker on offense, face the 1963 baseball wars hopefully—but Manager Danny Murtagh is making no promises.

Rarely has a pennant contender shaken up its infield as violently in trades as did the Pirates.

Gone are such well known veterans as Don Hoak, Dick Groat and Dick Stuart. Only survivor is Dick Schofield is expected to take over Groat's post at shortstop and at third is a 20-year-old rookie with only two years of professional experience, Bob Bailey.

"There's a lot of work to do," says Murtagh. "We'll have to wait and see."

The Pirates, world champions in 1960, finished fourth last year, eight games behind San Francisco. Joe L. Brown, the general manager, started trading in the off-season.

Lane is the No. 1 lightweight contender from Muskegon, Mich. Carlos Ortiz of New York is the world lightweight champion. Lane, approaching his 31st birthday, wants to get a crack at Carlos before old age dulls his reflexes.

Instead of a ring rendezvous with Ortiz, Lane will settle tonight for a television payday of about $5,000 by meeting unranked but ambitious Vicente Derado of Argentina at Madison Square Garden.

The 10-rounder will be telecast nationally by ABC-TV, starting at 10 p.m., EST.

The left-handed Lane is a 2-1 choice over the hustling, 27-year-old South American.

Scoring will be by the rounds system.

Angel's Belinsky Will Start Intra-Squad Tilt, Pilot Says

By TED MEIER
Associate Press Sports Writer

Saturday is a big racing day so the "blanket is being taken off Seabiscuit."

This has nothing to do with horse racing, however, except for the quaint way Bill Rigney, manager of the Los Angeles Angels, refers to his problem pitcher Bo Belinsky.

Rigney uses the name of the famed thoroughbred of the late 1930s when referring to Belinsky

11 Horses Are Entered In Rich Flamingo Stakes

By GENE PLOWDEN
MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—They're running the 34th edition of the Flamingo Stakes at Hialeah Park today and track officials fervently hope the finish won't be as dramatic as it was in 1958, or even last year.

No one among the 31,303 who saw the race five years ago will ever forget the bumping duel in the long stretch between Bill Hartack, on Calumet Farm's Tim Tam, and Manuel Ycaza, on Maine Chance Farm's Jewel's Reward.

Jewel's Reward, a close second choice to the favored Tim Tam, was a head in front at the finish, but stewards immediately ordered an inquiry.

For approximately 20 minutes the crowd waited, milling around and arguing violently as to which was the better horse. Finally, the stewards moved Jewel's Reward back to second and made Tim Tam the winner.

Last year the stewards flashed the "inquiry" sign again, after Townsend B. Martin's Sunrise County came angling down the stretch and finished almost on the outside rail.

So today, with 11 Derby-age collective fingers crossed until the colts battling for first money of $88,790 from a gross of $136,600, Hialeah officials will keep their collective fingers crossed until the "official" sign goes up.

Cain Hoy Stable's Never Bend was 1-2 favorite over Ogden Phipps' Royal Ascot, Elmendorf's B. Major, Walnut Hill Farms' Gray Pet, Philip Godfrey's Sum Dum Kid, and six others.

Rosburg Shoots 67 For Lead At New Orleans

By BEN THOMAS
NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Volatile Bob Rosburg used a hot putter to defeat the windswept Lakewood Country Club course for a one-stroke lead in the $40,000 Greater New Orleans Open Golf Tournament.

The 36-year-old Rosburg, seeking his first tournament victory in two years, conquered the water-dotted layout with a 5-under-par 67 Friday while golf's big three had difficulty with the shifting, tricky breezes.

Of the big three, only Gary Player, the little South African, bettered par. Player shot a 71 and called the course one of the most difficult he'd ever played.

Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus each had 74s. Nicklaus was bothered some by the burstitis which has affected his playing lately.

Bo Winiinger, 40, and defending champion, carded a 68 to take the runner-up spot.

Meusel Dies; Held Series RBI Records

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) —

Emil (Irish) Meusel, who in 1922 set a World Series record in second that still stands, is dead of a heart attack at the age of 69.

Meusel had been ill a short time before this death Friday at Pacific Hospital. He died only a day after Hall of Fame pitcher Eppa Rixey of Cincinnati, against whom he batted many times.

Meusel had worked the past 15 years as a guard at the Santa Anita and Hollywood Park race tracks. He played 10 years in the majors, six with the old New York Giants. He also played for the Philadelphia Phillies and the old Brooklyn Dodgers. His career batting average was .311.

Meusel's younger brother, Bob, played for the New York Yankees and they were opponents in the World Series, from 1921 through 1923. The Giants won the first two and the Yanks the third.

Irish set a record for an eight-game series by driving in seven runs in the 1921 classic and set a record for a five-game series by driving in seven again in 1922.

Meusel's brother, Bob, now is a chief security guard at a plant in Long Beach. Irish's other survivors include his widow, Estella, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Louise Gill and Mrs. Edith W. Robinson, both of Inglewood, Calif.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday at the Grace Chapel of Inglewood Park Cemetery.

SPORTSMEN TO MEET

The PNA Sportsmen's club will meet next Wednesday evening at the Eagles hall in Louisville when three conservation films will be shown.

McPherson, rated the best North American had to offer but still ranked no better than fourth in pre-competition estimates, pulled out the crown in the icy cold of outdoor Olympic Stadium early today over three favored Europeans.

When the six compulsory school figures were over Thursday, McPherson was fourth. Manfred Schellendorfer of West Germany was first with 1,215.9 points followed by Karol Divin of Czechoslovakia with 1,204, and European champion Alain Calmat of France with 1,189.1. McPherson had 1,177.8.

McPherson, who has been skating since he was 4 and competing since he was 10, didn't resign himself to defeat, and when all the points were in after free skating that ended after midnight, he was on top with 2,219.8 points and 18 ordinals. Calmat was second with 2,214.1 and 22, followed by Schellendorfer with 2,203.9 and 22, and Divin with 2,179 and 34.

Fifth place went to a surprising American, 14-year-old, Scott Allen of Smoke Rise, N.J.

Allen, youngest competitor to represent the United States in a world meet, had 2,168.8 points and 40 ordinals. Monty Hoyt of Denver, the other U.S. entry, was 11th.

His record safe — Gene Kotlarek, Duluth, Minn., gave this week after he knew his 322-foot national ski-jumping mark was safe. Record was threatened by John Balfanz, Minneapolis, who fell on a 356-foot effort at Wesby, Wis. As frost-free on the cake, Kotlarek won Class A competition with leaps of 297 and 287 feet.

Rotary Ladies Night Program March 18

Columbiana Event Is Re-Set

COLUMBIANA — The Rotary club program originally scheduled for Monday evening has been postponed until March 18.

At that time, members of this year's senior class will be honored and ladies night observed, with Dr. Eugene Beach, pastor of the First Christian Church of Youngstown, as the principal speaker. Monday's meeting will be a regular dinner only.

PARTICIPATING IN THE ACT testing program at Youngstown University Saturday were the following Columbiana students:

Carol Lindsay, Nancy Bowman, Ralph Bell, Ken Mahler, Stanley

Rupert, Tom Pfund, Sandy Stahl, Mary Drew, Bob Johnson, Dennis Bailey and Rick Altomare.

The ACT Test is required by most universities in Ohio as either an entrance requirement or placement test.

Twenty-three tables were in play when the Catholic Women's Guild held a Mardi-Gras card party Tuesday at South Side School.

Prizes were awarded at each table, with Mrs. Ina Mae Noel receiving the door prize and other prizes were awarded to Mrs. Pauline Callins, Mrs. Laura Gustafson, Mrs. Helen Winegard and Mrs. Evelyn Foster.

Report cards will be distributed for the fourth six-week grading period on Wednesday in Columbiana District schools. There were 28 days in the grading period, which began Jan. 21, with one teacher's meeting on Feb. 22, and on Jan. 25 the schools were closed for one day due to heavy snow and extreme weather conditions.

"EDUCATION FOR SURVIVAL" classes are scheduled to begin on Monday from 7 to 9 p.m. in room 34 at Columbiana High School, with another class to be held on Wednesday.

The course, covering a six-week period, will be instructed on Monday nights by Arno Holderread, and on Wednesdays by Fedoro DeTunno. Members of the classes are asked to use the Pittsburgh St. entrance to the school.

Only those who attended the Feb. 4 planning meeting have been admitted to classes. However, the course may be repeated at a later date.

Information such as basic information needed in dealing with natural disasters; the responsibility of federal, state and local defense organizations; dangers of nuclear fall-out and chemical and biological weapons; planning, building and other emergency preparations for the family, will be provided.

Mrs. Eleanor Schmidt, Parkview Drive, has been awarded one of two scholarships at Penn-Ohio University by the Youngstown Business and Professional Women's Club. Mrs. Schmidt, who is now studying at the school, plans to begin training on IBM machines.

THE 43RD BIRTHDAY of the Columbiana Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will be observed at their monthly meeting to be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 12, at the Masonic Hall.

Members and officers of the Leetonia Chapter, parent of the Columbiana Chapter, will be guests and a program will be presented by the Columbiana Music Study Club Chorus. All Eastern Star members are urged to attend.

Columbiana High School students Tuesday heard at a special assembly Morris Harvey, presented through the Economics and Business Foundation of New Wilmington, Pa., speak on the subject, "Rebels with a Cause," in which he cited examples of youth in Hollywood, Calif., and told of his own experiences in boys' camps in California and as a young man in China.

Rose Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the High School cafeteria. Slides, provided by the Conrad Pyle Co., on European gardens, will be shown. Hosts and hostesses are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gustafson.

Russians

press said government troops wiped out the band of Tomas San Gil "which for some time had carried out mischief and vandalism in that region, cowardly assassinating defenseless workers and peasants."

The report on the alleged CIA agent said he was nabbed seconds before entering an unnamed embassy with incriminating documents.

The newspaper El Mundo identified him as Manuel del Valle Caral.

Kidnap

radio has called them pirates, and Ashmann said he had reports that four have been executed.

The lawyer said in a Washington news conference that he has appealed to the United States and Czechoslovakia, Cuba's representative in Washington, as well as Great Britain to help keep alive the men detained.

Eight of the men, Ashmann said, were Cuban fishermen from Miami. He said they were seized by Cuban commandos on the British island of Elbow Cay, under the mistaken impression that the fishermen were the men who recently invaded Cuba and seized two Cuban attack vessels.

He said that "since the first snowflakes fell in October, we have measured 49 inches of snow, which is 21.5 inches above normal for the whole winter."

If it's any consolation, sunshine in February measured 42 per cent, which is 7 per cent above average for that month.

MOTOR FIRE CHECKED

City firemen were called to the NB Bar & Grill, 427 E. State St., at 1:52 p.m. Friday when a motor on a refrigerator compressor in the basement of the building caught fire. Damage was chiefly confined to the motor.

3 Cars Involved In Rt. 14 Mishap

Three cars were involved in a traffic accident at 12:15 a. m. today on State Route 14 at the intersection of a private driveway two-tenths of a mile west of Highway 7.

According to highway patrolmen, the accident happened when a westbound car driven by Francis Guinn, 38, of Flora, Ill., stopped to make a left turn and was struck in the rear by an automobile operated by westbound Leland A. Jeffries, 25, of 465 S. Broadway, Salem. The Jeffries car, according to the report, then swung to the other side of the road and struck an eastbound car driven by Nelson S. Shafer, 45, of East Palestine.

Jeffries was cited for failure to stop within assured clear distance. All three cars were damaged.

Driver Fined $150 After Accident

Charles W. Phillips, 26, of RD 1, Leetonia, was fined $150 and sentenced to three days in jail this morning by Mayor Dean Cranmer on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

A New Springfield driver is scheduled for a hearing in the mayor's court next Tuesday at 7 p.m. on a reckless operation charge.

The Phillips charge followed an accident at 11:39 p.m. Friday on S. Ellsworth Ave., about 25 feet south of Wilson St. According to police, the Phillips car, going south, struck parked cars owned by Ross B. Cook of RD 3, Salem, and Robert L. Hoffman of MC 315 Duquesne St., Columbiana.

The Phillips car was removed from the scene by wrecker, and the other two automobiles were also damaged.

Eloise Nye, 22, of New Springfield was cited for reckless operation on E. State St. at 7:40 p.m. Friday. According to police report, Miss Nye drove up over the sidewalk by the Ohio Grille, went into the grill lot, turned around, and then drove back over the sidewalk on E. State St. again.

Debt Ceiling

the debt limit as a lever to hold down expenditures.

Coincidentally, the decision to postpone action on a ceiling raise came on the very day the Republican congressional leadership announced a goal of trimming President Kennedy's budget by $10 billion.

Legally, the national debt cannot exceed the debt ceiling. Thus, to restrain a growing deficit, Congress usually sets the ceiling at a point not much above the anticipated high point for the debt during the year. However, when the government expects a further deficit in the next year the debt is apt to nudge the ceiling, forcing the need for a higher one.

The debt now stands at about $302.5 billion. The limit is $308 billion but will drop by stages to $285 billion by July 1 unless Congress acts.

The administration has asked for quick legislation to keep it at $308 billion until that date, and has said that it will later request another raise. This may be to as much as $325 billion, if the tax cut seems to be headed for approval.

Congress will vote on the debt limit before final action is possible on the tax bill.

64 Cases Heard In County Court Here

A total of 64 criminal cases and 12 civil cases was heard in Northwest County Court here during February, Judge Luther Donbar reported today.

The breakdown showed: To state treasurer $287.55; county treasurer $702.05, and constable fees $77.95. Mrs. Ida F. Austin is court clerk.
